

“Being a CDA member enables me to contribute to the well-being of the dental industry. As a hygienist, I like being able to voice my opinions as well as support the efforts made by other dental professionals.”

— CDA Member, Tanya Stein, RDH

THE ADVANTAGES OF MEMBERSHIP

As an Allied Dental Health Professional (ADHP) member of the California Dental Association, you'll experience the many benefits of one of the largest and most respected state dental associations in the nation. You will have exclusive access to the CDA family which includes an insurance company, an insurance broker and a charitable foundation. In addition, CDA offers the support, products and services you'll need to work more confidently and productively.

“By combining efforts we will be able to better serve patients.”

— CDA Member, Carol Pilmer,
Dental Lab Owner

ASSISTANCE & ADVICE

CDA recently unveiled a new benefit for members, the CDA Practice Support Center. This resource offers expert assistance and advice in four primary areas – practice management, employment practices, dental benefit plans and regulatory compliance.

At the center is the CDA Compass Web site, which offers a host of features, options and a library of user-rated resources. The Compass provides a complete list of social networking tools, including forums with a special private section just for ADHP members.
