

Council on Peer Review

CDA is seeking former chairs or members of component peer review committees with the ability to leverage local experience into strategic oversight. The CDA Council on Peer Review is responsible for overseeing the administration of the peer review system throughout California and for adjudicating peer review case appeals. The council is currently working on improving efficiencies in the administration of patient-practitioner dispute resolution and educational offerings to component committees.

The Council's Current Work:

- Review and make recommendations to the CDA board to modify peer review manual structure.
- Identify and implement efficiencies in program administration.
- Implement tools and resources to improve the efficiency of training program.
- Explain and speak on behalf of recommended changes to stakeholders.

Time Requirements

- Three to four annual council meetings. Attendance in person is required.
- One annual council meeting via conference call.
- Monthly subcommittee conference calls.
- Two to three annual peer review trainings per council member.
- One to two annual CDA Presents events per council member.
- Weekly review of peer review cases (independent work).
- Occasional development and preparation of presentation materials.

Qualifications and Skills

- Members in good standing.
- Service as chair (for one year) or a member (for three years) of a component peer review committee.
- Must have been in active practice at least five years.
- In-depth knowledge of the peer review process.
- Word processing, basic computer knowledge and internet access.
- Some members:
  - Ability to present case studies and peer review policies.